

STARTALK PENN HIGH SCHOOL Hindi Program

University of Pennsylvania • July 6–July 24, 2009

The University of Pennsylvania's new STARTALK Summer High School Hindi Program couples Penn's extensive experience with intellectual development programs for high school students and its excellence in language and culture programs taught by experienced Penn faculty.

CURRICULUM will:

- Offer two separate tracks to meet learners' language needs.
- Engage students in a wide range of activities, exercises and projects to raise their language skills.
- Promote students' interest in Hindi language and the cultures of South Asia through a standards-based curriculum.
- Provide students individualized feedback and a learning packet containing Hindi learning materials.

FACULTY

Experienced Penn faculty will teach the course. Guest speakers will enrich the Program by introducing target culture information through engaging activities.

CLASS SCHEDULE

Classes will be held from 9am to 4pm Monday through Friday.

STUDENTS

The program has places for 20 high school students.

TUITION*

Each student will be granted a scholarship of $500 to be applied to the $800 tuition; the final cost to each student will be $300.

A limited number of full scholarships will be available*
