RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES in NEPAL

KATHMANDU: POLICY & SOCIO-POLITICAL ISSUES

Placement: Martin Chautari is a research and policy institute based in Kathmandu, the capital city of the Federal Democratic Republic of Nepal. Rich with history and culture, Kathmandu holds several pilgrimage sites for Hindus and Buddhists as well as seven UNESCO World Heritage sites. Martin Chautari aims to produce high quality academic work on issues of democracy, public health, gender equality, knowledge production, internet access, media, education and social inclusion in Nepal.

Mentor: Dr. Pratyoush Onta is a Penn alum and Research Director for Martin Chautari.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES in SRI LANKA

KANDY: POLITICS, SOCIETY & CULTURE

Placement: The International Centre for Ethnic Studies (ICES) is one of the country’s leading research centers focusing on ethnicity, identity politics, conflict resolution, post-war reconstruction, caste, democracy and governance, human rights, development and gender issues. The mission of ICES is to deepen the understanding of ethnicity, identity politics and conflict, and to foster conditions for an inclusive, just and peaceful society through research, publication, dialogue, creative expression and knowledge transfer.

Mentor: Professor Kalinga Tudor Silva is the Director of Research at ICES Kandy.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES in SRI LANKA

KANDY: POLITICS, SOCIETY & CULTURE

Placement: The International Centre for Ethnic Studies (ICES) is one of the country’s leading research centers focusing on ethnicity, identity politics, conflict resolution, post-war reconstruction, caste, democracy and governance, human rights, development and gender issues. The mission of ICES is to deepen the understanding of ethnicity, identity politics and conflict, and to foster conditions for an inclusive, just and peaceful society through research, publication, dialogue, creative expression and knowledge transfer.

Mentor: Professor Kalinga Tudor Silva is the Director of Research at ICES Kandy.

INTERNSHIPS in SOUTH ASIA

The South Asia Center will award up to five summer grants to undergraduate students interested in working on a project in South Asia during the summer of 2017. These grants will cover the cost of roundtrip international airfare (up to $1,500), and will provide an additional $2,000 stipend to be used towards living expenses and program fees. Application deadline EXTENDED: April 2, 2017 at 11:59 PM.

Students who do not receive grants are eligible to participate in these opportunities, but will be responsible for covering their own costs. Unfunded students should expect to budget $3,000-3,500 for an 8-10 week research project (including room/ board, local program fees, and international airfare) unless otherwise noted on the program page.

To learn more about the different internship programs and apply, please visit the SAC website: www.southasiacenter.upenn.edu
RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES in the MALDIVES

Male: Politics, Corruption & Human Rights

Placement: Transparency Maldives (TM) is a National Chapter of Transparency International located in Malé, the center of political, social and commercial urban life in the Republic of Maldives. Transparency International is a leading organization fighting corruption globally. Students interested in studying election monitoring, community outreach and education, human rights, democratization, judiciary accountability, institutional trainings, climate finance, governance and other topics related to anti-corruption movement building and research in the Maldives should consider TM.

Mentor: Ms. Mariyam Shiuna, TM Executive Director.

Dhigurah: Marine Biology & the Indian Ocean

Placement: The Maldives Whale Shark Research Programme (MWSRP) is located on Dhigurah, a small Maldivian island southeast of Malé. MWSRP is a research-based conservation organization dedicated to studying the vulnerable whale shark and fostering community-focused conservation initiatives in the Maldives. MWSRP has developed a strong regional network for “citizen-science” as an effective method of collecting valuable information on marine activity. Students conducting research with MWSRP are required to have strong swimming skills and the ability to stand on a moving boat for long periods of time.

Mentor: Jim Hancock, the Operations Manager and a founding member of the MWSRP.

JAIPUR: Public Health & Health Management

Placement: The Indian Institute of Health Management Research (IIHMR) is located in Jaipur. IIHMR is a specialized research university in health management research, postgraduate education and training exclusively in the health sector. The University aims to generate new knowledge and technologies to provide evidence and inputs for developing effective health policies, interventions and strategies. Jaipur, the capital of the North Indian State of Rajasthan, is known for its architectural beauty and rich cultural arts.

Mentor: Dr. Vivek Bhandari is the president of IIHMR and a Penn alum. Dr. Bhandari was the director of the Institute of Rural Management Anand.

CHENNAI: Artist Residency

Artist Residency: Open to art students interested in exploring contemporary art in southern India and community-based art projects. Artist mentors will help students develop a community-based art project that will be created in partnership with a local art student. In addition to organizing site visits to essential contemporary art destinations in southern India, mentors will expose students to the contemporary art world in southern India. The residency will conclude with an art exhibition created by the student and their peer mentor.

Mentors: C. P. Krishnapriya and her husband Narendran Kumar are practicing contemporary artists based out of Chennai.

PUDUCHERRY: Psychology in Indian Society

Placement: Puducherry (previously known as Pondicherry) is a Union Territory nestled in the southeastern state of Tamil Nadu. It has a fascinating mix of Tamil cultural heritage and French colonial history. The historic neighborhood of the French Quarter is known for its tree-lined streets, colonial villas and chic boutiques. A seaside promenade on the edge of town runs along the Bay of Bengal and is host to cafés, restaurants and parks. Pondicherry is a three-hour drive from the metropolis of Chennai.

Mentor: Professor Maguipinamei Rejoyson (Joey) Thangal is an Assistant Professor at Pondicherry University. His research focuses on the psychological impact of stigma within marginalized communities in India.

KOLKATA: LGBT Movement Building

Placement: Anandam is a Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Kothi and Hijra (LGBTKH) organization in Kolkata. Anandam is a grassroots, community-led organization that espouses an anti-violence framework. Their current projects include: organizing a LGBTKHIA Parliament, rural outreach and sensitivity training, advocacy work through awareness campaigns as well as the creation of temporary and permanent safe spaces for queer community members. Students interested in researching LGBTKH movement building in India, state violence based on sexual and gender discrimination or other topics related to the LGBTKH community in India should apply.

Mentor: Dr. Soma Roy has a Ph.D., and M.Sc. in Applied Psychology. She has worked with Anandam for several years in the capacity of research advisor.